

NORDISCHER KLANG

Department of Fennistics and Scandinavistics
University of Greifswald

Erasmus+ Traineeship Offer: FESTIVAL ORGANISATION AND WORK

| | |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| ORGANISATION | A non-profit festival for Northern European culture attached to the department of Fennistics and Scandinavistics of the University of Greifswald, one of the oldest universities in central Europe. |
| LOCATION | Greifswald, GERMANY |
| WHAT WE OFFER | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- 10 days full of music, literature, arts and more – from newcomers to international top acts.- Work in a small, friendly, dedicated team with Northern spirit, in the unique atmosphere of a Hanse city at the shores of the Baltic Sea.- A broad bandwidth of tasks – organization, artist assistance and support, media and public relations.- The opportunity to gather experience in virtually every aspect of festival organization. |
| STARTING DATE AND DURATION | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Minimum 60 days of internship- Starting no later than March 15, 2017 |
| STUDENT PROFILE | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Studies in a culture-related field in the broader sense (intercultural studies, cultural management, philology and linguistics, fine arts, etc.).- Interest in Northern European Culture.- The usual computer and viral medial skills (Office and Web applications, social media).- Good command in English and at least one Northern European language.- At least basic active and good passive knowledge in German.- Flexibility, cooperativeness, readiness to assess necessary tasks. |
| LANGUAGE | English, German, Nordic languages |
| SALARY | NA |
| ERASMUS GRANT | Candidates can apply for an Erasmus+ internship mobility scholarship at their home university. |
| APPLICATION DEADLINE | February 1, 2017 |
| APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS | Please send your applications including CV by e-mail to: nokl@uni-greifswald.de . |
| CONTACT | Benjamin Schweitzer Hans-Fallada-Straße 11 17489 Greifswald GERMANY E-mail: nokl@uni-greifswald.de Tel.: +49 3834 863613 |